

HEALTH POLICY

- Energy Works Technology Ltd (EWT), shall formulate, promote and enforce guidelines and procedures aimed at ensuring the good health of each worker and shall periodically review and update same to conform and be consistent with acceptable practice.
- EWT shall uphold, respect and comply with all relevant guidelines and regulations of government, its agencies and client's policies aimed at ensuring that the health of the workforce is protected and preserved.
- EWT shall support and contribute to local and international efforts aimed towards enhancement and improvement of existing norms, standards and codes as they apply to the Workers Health.
- Allocating necessary resources to ensure that amenities required for workers healthy living at our facility are functionally and adequately in place and all Health staff trained and informed on their individual and collective roles in achieving the corporate goals of a healthy workforce.
- Whenever health guards fail and a worker falls sick, EWT shall spare no effort in ensuring prompt medical attention locally and internationally as applicable.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Glulis', is written over a horizontal dashed line. The signature is stylized and cursive.

Managing Director

Ref: EWT/HSE/POL/002